Your application gives us information about whether you are eligible for benefits and services. These benefits are provided at public expense and you must give true information. It may be verified with public and private agencies and businesses. You must report any changes to the information provided on this form within 10 days of the change. If you knowingly give false information or willfully fail to report changes you may be subject to disqualification and to the penalties listed below.

Article 27, 230A of the Annotated Code of Maryland states that:

- (a) Any person who fraudulently obtains, attempts to obtain, or aides another person in fraudulently obtaining or attempting to obtain money, property, food stamps, medical care, or other assistance to which he is not entitled, under a social, health, or nutritional program based on need, financed in whole or in part by the State of Maryland, and administered by the state or its political subdivisions is guilty of a misdemeanor. For purpose of this section, fraud shall include:
- (1) willfully making a false statement or representation; or
 - (2) willfully failing to disclose a material change in household or financial condition; or
 - (3) impersonating another person.
- (b) Upon conviction, after notice and the opportunity to be heard as to the amount of payment and how the payment is to be made, the person shall make full restitution of the money, property, food stamps, medical care or other assistance unlawfully received, or the value thereof, and shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than three years, or both fined and imprisoned.

Consent to release information:

I hereby authorize the Inspector General's Office of the Department of Human Resources to review any records relating to me maintained by a local department of social services, the Child Care Administration, or my employer for purposes of investigating whether I have knowingly given false information or willfully failed to report changes that could affect my eligibility for POC benefits. By signing below I certify that I am the undersigned, and that I am competent to consent to this release of information. A photocopy of this form is as valid as the original.
