| Read a new book. Ask each other questions about the characters. | Say and act out the words jump and laugh . Think of other action words. | Work together to make a map of your bedroom. | Bounce a ball for each syllable in hot, sunshine, summertime . | Manny loves sports. Make a target and have your child throw a ball at it. | On a sunny day, go outside and play in a sprinkler. | Recite the rhyme "Star Light, Star Bright" as you look at the night sky. |
| Go on a nature walk. Write and draw about what you see. | Look at the red, white, red, white pattern on a flag. Repeat the pattern with paper strips. | Make patriotic pots. Paint small planting pots red, white, and blue. | Read a book about Flag Day, such as F is for Flag by Wendy Lewison. | Make Flag Day cupcakes. Put red, white and blue sprinkles on top. | Count the stars and the stripes on an American flag. | Make a Father's Day card with your handprint on the front. |
| Father's Day  | Play a game of "I Spy" and look for things that start with the letter F . | Put objects together: lids on jars, nuts on screws, cases on pillows. | Dance to your favorite InvestiGator Club song. | Make up tongue twisters with T words, such as: Ten toads taste tacos . | Play a version of the game Tag where a "shark" chases and tags the "minnows." | Make a cold summer treat by freezing fruit juice in small paper cups. |
| Take an imaginary jungle journey. Swing on vines, pick flowers, and swim across a river. | Sing songs about water such as "There's a Hole in the Bottom of the Sea." | Compare the seeds in an apple and a peach. How are they different? | Arrange triangular and square blocks to form a sailboat. | Play a Limbo game having "crabs" walk sideways under a bar. | Roll, bend, pinch, or coil clay to form a crab or a fish. | Together write a rule for being safe near water. |
