

Activity Calendar

June

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	Quack like a duck when you sing "Five Little Ducks."	Flap your "wings" as you walk like a duck.	Show your child how to bang two lids together. Let her try.	Read a lift-the-flap book such as Peek-a-Boo Forest .	Fill a squirt bottle with water. Let your child squirt it.	Use toy trucks to move sand in the sandbox.
Go outside and play with inflated balloons.	Say on and off as you turn a light on and off.	Sit in a baby pool or tub and splash the water.	Draw squiggles in yogurt dumped on the high chair tray.	Explore numbers as you sing "Hot Cross Buns."	Use a yellow crayon to draw the sun.	Go to a pond and feed the ducks.
Take a photo of your child and put it on a card for Father's Day.	Share books with textures, such as Animals .	Put a small toy in your pocket. See if baby can find it.	Watch a pinwheel as the wind blows it.	Give your baby a kitchen drawer or cabinet to explore.	Pretend to be a butterfly as you "fly" around the yard.	Use feet to make riding toys move.
Add motions as you sing "It's Raining, It's Pouring."	Put puzzles with only two pieces together.	Play with magnets on a metal cookie sheet.	Chant "Jack Be Nimble" as you jump over a "candlestick."	Place a biscuit inside a container and see if baby can get it out.	Sit on a blanket outdoors and read your child's favorite book.

NOTE: The suggested activities in this calendar are for family members to do with infants ages 0–18 months. Before you begin, make sure the daily activity is appropriate for the age, skill level, and interests of your child.
