A New School Year

We can smell the new pencils and crayons in the air, all our big kids and preschoolers have gone off to school, we are NOT ok! Although we are crying and full of bittersweet memories, we pray they have an amazing school year full of adventure, safety, and new beginnings!!! We would love to see the children's first day of school pictures, please tag us on social media @kidzstuffcc.

Tuesday, September 6, 2022, will be a new school year for all KidzStuff Students. Get out your magnifying glasses-it's time to investigate! Your child will embark on a wonderful new adventure in which he or she will explore, learn, and discover. Your child will be introduced to important concepts in language, literacy, math, science, social studies, the creative arts, physical health, social and emotional growth, and technology.

Your child will meet and learn alongside the InvestiGator Club: Dilly and JT Gator, Rosalita Sausalita, Manny Salamandar, Chuck Wood, Bruno Buzzbee, and Great Auntie Lu.

For our September "Getting to Know You" unit please send pictures of your family to school with your child(ren) by Monday, September 19, 2022. We will cut and glue these pictures for classroom projects, please do not send original pictures.
