

KidzStuff August 2023 Infant/Toddler Newsletter

Bugging Into Summer

The weather is beginning to cool off and it's almost time for our bug mates to hibernate in the coming months. Our friends have enjoyed being Entomologist for the last couple of months, we think they enjoyed playing in the dirt and eating our insect snacks most of all. We will continue studying different insect lives, their body types, what they eat and their habitats.

We will finish our Bugging into Summer programming with a bug scavenger hunt on August 23, 2023. Please allow our friends to dress up like any of the bugs we have learned about this summer to make our final super fun and engaging.

Infants and Toddlers Milestones

We've talked about transitions before, but we want to remind you that transitions of any kind can be tough on our friends. The New school year will bring about a major transition for many of our friends as they move from one classroom to another. They will be with a new teacher and new friends in a new room. Please be patient as they may cry for their old environment, teacher, and friends. You can help them by talking to them about the transition and stopping them by their new classroom to explore.
