SPRING DIGITAL NEWSLETTER

"No winter lasts forever; no spring skips its turn." — Hal Borland

Blossoming Minds, Bright Futures...

What a winter it has been! We loved seeing the snowy day pictures and hearing the stories of the many ways your children enjoyed the snow with their families. And while it feels like the snow is never going away, we are looking forward to the season of growth, creativity, and new adventures...SPRING is just around the corner!!

We are marching into March like lions with our "Read Across the Center" kicking off literacy week to inspire a love for reading among our children.

Parent volunteers are needed during the month of March to read to our friends. Sign-up sheets will be posted at the front desk.

KidzStuff Administration is committed to having the best care takers working with your children. We have partnered with Sage Wellness Group to provide professional development to our staff in 2026. Once a month our staff will train on topics such as the Maryland Early Learning Standards, positive behavior management, developmental appropriate practices, and interative care taking to name a few topics.

We believe these monthly trainings will stregthen our teaching philospy, build better parent teacher relationships, and create meaninful programming for our friends and families.

Your feedback is invaluable to us, as we undergo this training please let us know how we are doing by sending an email to your center director.
