Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	Have a patriotic parade. Decorate ride on toys with red, white, and blue streamers.	Ice star-shaped cookies for a 4 th of July treat.	Read a patriotic story such as F is for Flag .	Draw a picture of bright fireworks in the night sky.	Make rubbings of tree bark using paper and crayons.	Name as many words as you can that begin like Dilly .
Chuck Wood loves numbers. Use chalk to write the numbers 1 to 10 on a sidewalk.	On a trip to the grocery store, select one new fruit or vegetable to try.	Find shapes around your home, such as circles (orange, cup) or squares (window, table).	Measure how hot or how cold it is outside using a thermometer.	Sing and dance to "Do Your Ears Hang Low?"	Set out 5 toys. Take away one at a time. Count together with each subtraction.	Fill a tub with sand. Use funnels, cups, and shovels to play in it.
Put a magnifying glass in the tub of sand. Explore what the sand looks like up close.	Taste something that is made in Bruno Buzzbee's beehive – honey!	Go outside and play "Shadow Tag."	Go for an "insect walk." Bring a magnifying glass with you if you have one.	Blow bubbles and have a friend try to catch them.	Paint a summer picture using bright, summer colors.	Read a summer book such as The Very Hungry Caterpillar .
Use blocks to build walls. Make some short and some tall.	Climb a tree.	Do a "happy dance." Wave streamers in the air as you move.	Play a game of "Red Light, Green Light."	Make banana pudding. Draw a recipe to show what you did first, next, and last.	Cut sponges into fish shapes. Dip the fish in paint and make fish prints.	Make a musical instrument from cardboard tubes, rubber bands, and other art scraps.
