

December Activity Calendar

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Collect branches or twigs outdoors and turn them into artwork.	Rosalita loves to dance. Put on a song and dance with your child.	Read a book about hibernation. Make a blanket "den" to hibernate in tonight.	Talk about qualities that make a good friend.	Take turns making faces. Guess the emotion the other is expressing.	Put pairs of socks in a pile. Match socks that are the same.	Manny loves to rap. Make up a rap about winter with your child.
Work together to cut vegetables for homemade soup.	Listen to each other's heartbeat. Talk about the heart's job.	Make your own Bee Mail. Write a note to a family member and send it.	Join your child in a game of Simon Says .	Look for opposites in your home: quiet/loud, heavy/light.	Finger paint snowy scenes in shaving cream.	On a walk, count the different types of animals you see.
Lace and unlace shoes. Try tying the shoes, too.	Invent a new animal. Give it a name and draw a picture of it.	Form a pots-and-pans band and play a song together.	Follow Great Auntie Lu's lead and help your child tell a favorite story.	Have an indoor snowball fight. Use crumpled paper or marshmallows.	FIRST DAY OF WINTER 	How many words can you rhyme with the words ice , snow , and cold ?
Make a winter picture gluing cotton balls for snow.	Chuck Wood loves to build. Help him build snow (or clay) people.	Go on a letter hunt. Look for words that begin like Winter .	String O-shaped cereal. Hang it outside to feed the birds.	Use socks as puppets. Act out ways to cheer up a friend.	Create patterns using cut-up vegetables.	Take off your shoes and "sock skate" on a bare floor.
