

Activity Calendar

February

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	Be silly as you sing "Six in the Bed."	Make drums from empty containers with lids. Tap them to make music.	Set out two cups. Hide a small toy under one. Ask your child to find the toy.	Read a number book, such as Animal 1, 2, 3 .	Dip one end of a cup in paint and then press it on paper. Repeat to cover the paper.	Walk using giant dinosaur steps and then slow turtle steps.
Play with colanders and basters in the bathtub.	Put puzzles with only three pieces together.	Add actions as you sing "If You're Happy and You Know It."	Use cookie cutters to cut hearts from clay.	Glue paper hearts onto a card to make a valentine.	Make up words that rhyme with the child's name.	Collect and sort rocks, putting big and little rocks in separate piles.
Set out pipe cleaners and see what your child makes with them.	Read your child's favorite Dr. Seuss book.	Play on riding toys. Push with feet to move faster.	Act like a bear as you sing "The Bear Went Over the Mountain."	String beads in a pattern, such as big, little, big, little.	Use a sock as a hand puppet for telling stories.	Push your child on a toddler-sized swing.
Tape two toilet paper rolls together. Use the "binoculars" to spy things.	Roll, squish, and flatten dough to make cookies. Bake and eat.	Use an egg carton as a sorting tray for large buttons.	Move furniture to make a maze. Walk or crawl through the maze.	Learn the names of letters as you sing "The Alphabet Song."	Fill a box with dress-up clothes and hats for pretend play.

NOTE: The suggested activities in this calendar are for family members to do with toddlers ages 18–36 months. Before you begin, make sure the daily activity is appropriate for the age, skill level, and interests of your child.
