

KidzStuff January 2023 Newsletter

Weather Watchers

Happy New Year! Thank you for the wonderful cards, gifts, and goodies. A new year always gives us hope of renewed opportunities to accomplish great things. We sure hope you've set some lofty goals for your family this year that include prayer, exercise, healthy eating, and rest. We just know this year will be great!

We appreciate all your referrals for new families, keep them coming! We are working to employ new people to meet the demand of new families. If you know of someone who loves children and is looking to become a classroom aid in a childcare center, please have them give us a call to set up an interview.

It's a great time to study weather and the four seasons! This month our little learners will join Dilly and her friends to learn all about rain, snow, clouds, sun, light, the four seasons, and more! The books of the month are What's the Weather with Bruno's Buzz and The Snowy Day by Jack Keats.
